

Regents May Ask State for Loan Power

PWA Officials Fear Inability To Pay For Buildings In Thirty-Five Years.

ASK ATHLETIC SUPPORT

That Municipal University regents may ask the Nebraska state legislature for power to borrow money was indicated at a meeting of the regents September 13 by W. C. Ramsey, a member, who said that PWA officials would not approve the University building project because the regents lacked the power to borrow money.

The building project called for the federal government to erect buildings and then lease them to the University for thirty-five years. At the end of this period the buildings were to become the property of the University. PWA officials, however, feared that under this arrangement the government might be forced to take back the buildings.

Witman Predicts No War In Near Future

No war in the near future is the optimistic view of Shepherd L. Witman, instructor in political science, who has returned to Omaha University this term after a two-year leave of absence.

"Although there may be some confusion in 1937 or 1938, I do not anticipate war within the next few years," he said in a recent interview.

Mr. Witman has been studying at Yale University for the past two years and will receive his Ph. D. degree upon the completion of his thesis. His major is government. He took his B. A. degree from Ursinus university at Collegeville, Pa., and his M. A. degree from Boston university. At college he was active in political science clubs and was intensely interested in international relations.

Regarding the Hitler regime in Germany, Mr. Witman believes that it is destined to go out of power in a short time.

"Hitler has a year or so to run," he said. "I would not be surprised if an anti-Hitlerian revolution broke out within that time."

Mr. Witman is a supporter of the "New Deal," declaring that it has brought about necessary changes in political organization and governmental functions. He believes that the present policy of the administration will lead to recovery.

STUDENTS APPOINTED

Lewis Leigh, 37, and Dexter Nygaard, '36, have been appointed members of the ticket committee in the Order of DeMolay. The DeMolays will give their first dance of the season on September 28th at the Chermot ballroom.

The Municipal University's Women's club will meet at 2:30 on October 11, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Sealock.

STUDENT ELECTION TO BE HELD NEXT FRIDAY

An election will be held on Friday, the 28th, to choose members to fill the vacancies in the Student Council. Voting will take place in the Men's Faculty building from 10 o'clock a. m. until 2 o'clock p. m.

The offices to be filled are: Freshman boy representative and girl representative, Sophomore boy representative and girl representative, Junior boy representative, and Senior girl representative, and two student members of the Board of Student Publications.

Those interested must secure petitions from Miss Diamond, whose office is in the gymnasium. The deadline for all petitions is Wednesday noon, September 26. All petitions should be returned to Miss Diamond by that time.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS ENJOY VACATIONS IN VARIOUS PLACES

Oh, for the life of a university professor! Having traveled from the rock-bound coast of Maine to the sun-kissed shores of the south, they are back in full regalia to resume their work.

Dr. Edgar A. Holt, dean of the Arts and Science College, acquired a southern drawl while on his vacation at his home in Tazewell, Tenn.

One prof to get some of that southern accent was Irwin A. Hammer, associate professor of education, but he lost this for the hill-billy drawl of the Ozark mountain region.

Dr. Benjamin Boyce, assistant professor of English, vacationed in Michigan.

E. M. Hosman, director of the extension division, and his family; and Dr. Wilfred Payne, associate professor of philosophy, and Mrs. Payne, summered at Minnesota lakes.

J. C. Travis Is Guest at Assembly

Expresses Confidence in Elasticity of the Constitution to Act as Stabilizer.

DEDICATES FLAG POLE

Students and faculty members of the University observed Constitution day Monday morning by dedicating the new flagpole. Members of patriotic organizations in the city were introduced by Mr. Hosman, director of extension, followed by the assembly singing "America the Beautiful."

J. C. Travis, commander-elect of the Omaha post, American Legion, was guest speaker. He explained in some detail the necessity for the first ten amendments to the Constitution.

"Although we are witnessing attacks on the Constitution from within and without the country, and though we may swerve to the left or right, our Constitution is so flexible that it will, sooner or later, snap us back in place," Mr. Travis declared.

After the address, the new flag was raised on the new flagpole. Those in charge of the flag-raising were: Woodrow Tietz, president of the student council; Minnette Myers, secretary; and a special color guard consisting of Vance Senter, George Alexander and Warren Novak, members of the scout fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega.

Sullenger's Articles Accepted

Four of Dr. Sullenger's articles have been accepted for publication by various magazines recently. They are: "The Public School, a Factor in Juvenile Delinquency," for the School Executives' Magazine; "Aspects of the Urban Crime Situation," for the Christian Evangelist; "Ethnic Assimilation in Omaha," for Sociology and Social Research; and "Economic Status as a Factor in Juvenile Delinquency," for the Journal of Juvenile Research.

Miss Ruth Diamond, director of physical education for women, visited the World's fair at Chicago, besides being director of the Y. M. C. A. girls' camp at Youngstown, Ohio.

Dr. W. Gilbert James, professor of public speech, saw that famous moon come over the mountain—in the Rockies.

C. W. Helmstadter, assistant professor of Business Administration, vacationed at Beatrice, Nebraska. Earlier in the summer, Mr. Helmstadter took five weeks of graduate study at the University of Iowa.

V. H. Vartanian, assistant professor of philosophy, and Mrs. Vartanian stayed five weeks at the University of Iowa doing research work.

Of course some of the professors do study during the vacation period.

Omaha Sponsors Honorary Groups

Eleven clubs and seven honorary fraternities are sponsored by the University of Omaha for its students. The eleven clubs are open to all students of the school, and the seven honorary societies receive students majoring in their respective fields of activity. Students are urged to become associated with as many of these extra-curricular activities as possible.

Following is a list of the various clubs: Debating club, Chemistry club, Pre-medical club, Business Administration club, Art club, Press club, Women's Athletic Association, and German club. Honorary fraternities are found in Chemistry, Education, Psychology, English, Scouting, Sociology, and History.

Eighty-four New Rushees Join Greeks

Pan-Hellenic Council Confirms the Choice of Greek Social Organizations.

MAY STILL PLEDGE

Eighty-four rushees were pledged by the six sororities and four fraternities which constitute the Greek social group at the University of Omaha. This is a decided drop from the pledge total of last year.

The Pan-Hellenic council met Monday noon to confirm the choice of the would-be Greeks with the bid lists as submitted by the different Greek letter organizations. Preferences had been turned in to the Dean of Woman and the Dean of Men earlier that day.

With the close of "Preference Day" active rushing ceased, although individuals may still pledge a fraternity or sorority during the six weeks' period immediately following.

Peary Big Gun of First String Attack

The steady ground-gaining of Leo Peary and the perfect clicking of the Peary-to-Huff passing combination brought a smile of satisfaction to Coach Sed Hartman's face last Saturday morning as he sent his squad through their third and toughest scrimmage of the season.

The first string won the 80-minute battle by a 20-to-0 score, but it was their steady marches in the first half-hour of play that did the trick. After that the seconds settled down to business and held the varsity men scoreless, repulsing them at the two-yard line on the final play.

Peary was the big gun of the varsity attack. Time after time the big blond fullback skirted the ends or smashed through the line for steady gains. Once in a while just to break the monotony, he would toss a long pass to "Jitters" Huff—and every time it worked. Loder contributed several end runs to the varsity offense and Brown did heavy duty in blocking.

Peary scored two touchdowns and Huff the third. Huff also kicked two points after touchdown.

The seconds didn't have much of an offense, going deep into varsity territory only once, on a long pass, Anderson to Weiner. However, after the varsity scoring splurge, the second line became difficult to penetrate and with Gammon at tackle leading the defense in smearing several plays, they kept the play near midfield for most of the game.

W. A. A. SPONSOR HIKE

The Women's Athletic Association is sponsoring a hike Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The plans for the hike will not be revealed until the hike begins. All girls of the university are invited, according to Harriet Benson, assistant in physical education for women. Those interested should watch the bulletin board in the gym for further announcements.

LIBRARY BEHAVIOR

With the beginning of the new term, student behavior in the library warrants attention.

The other day we stepped into that building with just one hour between us and a philosophy class, and a heavy chapter to digest meanwhile. Hardly had we become enmeshed in anthropomorphisms and other alphabetic rhapsodies when the gal next door let go a giggle that jerked every ounce of concentration out of us. She was looking at an illustration in a modern art book, and evidently couldn't control her esthetic reactions.

We finally got back into the text, but in ten minutes found ourselves listening to a recital of the University's football outlook by a couple of athletes at the next table. The table back of us was buzzing with some choice bit of news, too, but in the general confusion we could just catch a few words here and yonder. During the hour we saw the librarian admonish at least five disturbers. And it's not the freshmen, but the upper-classmen who are the real offenders.

The freshman reading room is comparatively quiet and orderly.

Since the University is handicapped in lack of study rooms, the library remains the one refuge of those who are in earnest about their study, and it should not be used as a social stampeding ground.

Some of the new titles which were added to the library last summer are: "The Choice Before Us" by Norman Thomas; "The Economy of Abundance" by Stuart Chase; "Scientific Outlook" by Bertrand Russell; "Red Medicine" by Sir Arthur Newsholme and John A. Kingsbury.

University Athletes Spend Hot Summer

Many Attend Coaching School During Summer Session

Traveling, attending school, playing baseball, getting married, loafing, and working were among the ways in which Municipal University athletes passed the hot summer vacation days.

Leo Peary, ace halfback, worked on a farm near Florence Heights getting in trim for the coming football season. His Council Bluffs cohorts, Jimmie James and Don Minikus, stayed in the Iowa city during vacation.

The Iowa Trio, Marlin Wilkinson, Lloyd Patterson, and Lowell Curtis, worked on an Iowa farm, but managed to come to Omaha Sundays to play with the North Omaha baseball team. DeVer "Muscle" Sholes, reserve football lineman, attended Municipal University coaching school.

Other Cardinals who attended the coaching school are: Cliff Anderson and Harold Johnk. Anderson visited in California the remainder of the summer while Johnk worked on his father's farm near Walnut, Ia.

Frank Hummel, veteran Cardinal lineman, worked on farms near Silver City and Malvern, Iowa. Working on a farm near Creighton, Nebr., enabled Neil Huff, Cardinal back, to forget the sweltering heat of summer.

Bob Elliott joined the ranks of the benedicts last summer when he married Miss Margaret Schar-tow, graduate of North High.

Pi Omega Pi

Pi Omega Pi sorority completed its rush season Saturday evening with a banquet at the Fontenelle Hotel. Sixteen rushees attended.

The first party of the rush season given was a garden party held at the home of Bernice Corbaley, a Pi O alum. Thirty-four rushees were present. Miss Harriet Walker toe-danced, and Shirley Jean Hartland, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hartland, entertained with readings. She is a student of Miss Virginia Lee Long, one of the Pi O actives.

During rush week the Pi O's held three parties—the first a tea at the home of Miss Dorothy Hansen. Tuesday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 the alumnae entertained both rushees and actives at a buffet supper given at the Omaha Club.

Thursday night was "College Night" at the home of Mrs. Irene Driver. The house was decorated like a sorority house is always imagined to be decorated, with pennants, paddles, and similar paraphernalia. Hamburgers, with onions, potato chips, olives and pickles, and coffee, were served.

Saturday night the preference banquet was held at the Fontenelle Hotel. The Sorority colors cerise and silver, were carried out in the table decorations. Three baskets of Imperial red roses decorated the banquet table. White tapers were the only lighting used. The tables were arranged in a U shape with the sorority crest just behind the head of the table. Corsages made of red roses with silver ribbons were given to the rushees. Guests of honor were Mrs. V. H. Vartanian, Mrs. Mary Uhl Collins, and Mrs. Nell Gillard. Seated at the head of the table were Miss Sue Kemper, active president, and Miss Dorothy Hansen, past president, and Mrs. Betty Sayles Uhl, president of the alumnae chapter.

Miss Eleanor Johnson, rush chairman, was in charge of arrangements for all the parties.

Officers of the sorority for the coming year are Miss Sue Kemper, president, Miss Eleanor Johnson, vice-president, Miss Ruth Callin, secretary, Miss June Corkin, treasurer, Miss Robin Meyer, corresponding secretary, and Miss Dorothy Wrieth, sergeant-at-arms.

Sigma Chi Omicron Fifty guests attended the formal Arrow Preference Banquet of Sigma Chi Omicron sorority last Saturday evening at the Fontenelle Hotel.

Following the theme of the evening the tables were arranged the shape of a huge arrow, with table decorations of tall gold candles tied with blue cellophane bows at the base. Center bouquets of pale yellow tea roses, and individual corsages of blue and yellow flowers for the rushees gave the tables added charm. Many of the rushees and actives attended the theatre following the dinner.

Formal pledging will be held September 24 at the home of Ethel Jane Scanlon, with Doris Coonley assisting.

Students Become Marriage Minded

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love"—but in the summer he begins to think seriously of it, if we are to judge from the recently-announced marriages and will-be marriages of various amorous Municipalities.

September 29 will be an important date in the lives of Elsa Kelley, a Kappa Psi Delta of last year and the year before, and Don Norquist, now a student at the Nebraska Medical School, but formerly a Theta Phi Delta at Omaha University.

Floyd Wilson, a Phi Sigma Phi alumnus, is evidently an enlightened soul who doesn't believe in superstitions, for his wedding to Jeannette Hohenshell is scheduled to take place on November 13.

Vivian Krisal, 29, also defied bad luck by choosing September 13 as the date for her marriage to Edward Blair at the Dundee Presbyterian church.

Mark Besak, a one-time Phi Sig, followed her marital example in Kansas City two days later, when he promised to love, honor and obey Mary Johnson, of this city. That day, September 16, must have been particularly auspicious, for it was then that Dorothy Gearhart, a '32 Kappa Psi Delta, changed her name to Barrie. Bill, the other party concerned, was an active Phi Sig until this year.

Betty Kavan, a last season's Sigma Chi Omicron, and Tom Lewis, a former Theta Phi Delta, are looking forward to September 28. The marriage of Isabel Dohan, a Municipal University graduate, will be another fall event. Her better half will be Ernest Paquette, of Sioux City.

Eleanor Needham, a Sigma Chi Omicron of '32, scooped all the other marriage-minded by her secret wedding to Tom Rutter last November 29.

Officers of the sorority for the coming year are Miss Sue Kemper, president, Miss Eleanor Johnson, vice-president, Miss Ruth Callin, secretary, Miss June Corkin, treasurer, Miss Robin Meyer, corresponding secretary, and Miss Dorothy Wrieth, sergeant-at-arms.

Wilkinson May Join Chicago Cubs' Team

To Try Out Before the Cubs' Scout Next Week

The name of Marlin Wilkinson may appear in the roster of the 1935-36 line-up of the Chicago Cubs baseball team. "Winkie" will try out before the Cubs scout next week and his baseball future may depend upon his showing.

Wilkinson has received tryout offers from the St. Louis Cards, the Washington Senators, and the Cleveland Indians, but has cast an eye in the direction of Chicago. Jack Ryan, the St. Louis scout, has already watched Marlin play and wanted him to sign with the Cards, but "Wink" has chosen to finish his college education—having one more year left in the Liberal Arts College.

Carl Stimson, formerly pitcher of the Washington club, and now coach of the North Omaha ball team, gave Wilkinson some valuable pointers and although "Wink" played with a cellar-position club he established a record of 121 strike-outs in 119 innings. Lou Fitchmeyer, manager of the North Omaha club, kept Marlin under his watchful eye and helped arrange for his tryouts.

Wilkinson also played with the Henderson, Nebr., baseball team and in the 5 weeks with them he averaged 11 strike-outs per game.

At the Municipal University Marlin has been active in sports, having played three years on the basket-ball team. Wilkinson, along with Lloyd Patterson and Lowell Curtis, led the Cardinals to two championships in three years and has one more year left on the championship team.

REGENTS MAY SEEK POWER TO BORROW

The only way in which to overcome this obstacle is to ask the state legislature to empower the regents to borrow money, Ramsey said.

Dr. W. L. Shearer, chairman of the regents' committee on athletics, asked the support of the regents in obtaining material for athletic teams. "It's up to us to give them all of the moral support we can because the University is not in a position to assist the boys as other colleges do."

Dr. W. E. Sealock, president of Municipal University, came to Omaha in 1931 from Nebraska University, where he was dean of the teachers' college.

STUDENT FORUM

WE'RE SORE

Gather round, children, while we prepare to fire the opening gun in a campaign to eliminate a fly in the ointment that is our smooth-running campus life.

We want to know how come, why, wherefore, and what is the big idea to having only one (1) of the two (2) doors at the main entrance of Joslyn hall open during the period between classes?

It slows up student traffic through the doorway something terrible. Anyway, we get tired of waiting on the outside until the stream of humanity has issued from the inside, and vice versa, when said stream of humanity is also vice versa. (You may have to read this last first before it makes sense, but it's worth it).

So take heed, ye high moguls of education! OPEN THAT OTHER DOOR, or—we'll be back in this same space next week!

Registered U.S. Patent Office

Washington, D.C.

Not like any other cigarette—

Chesterfields are like Chesterfields

WHEN a trade-mark is registered, it means that no one else can use the same name and the same package for the same kind of product.

To us the Chesterfield trade-mark means that every Chesterfield is manufactured by the same formula, and in every way absolutely the same in each and every package you buy.

That means that every Chesterfield is like every other Chesterfield—not like any other cigarette...

—the cigarette that's milder

—the cigarette that tastes better

—the cigarette that satisfies
